TOWN WIPE OUT

Creek Left Its Banks And Swept Village Like Raging Torrent.

Louisville, Ky., June 8.—Twenty persons are dead, the village is devastated and several thousand acres of young crops are ruined. This is the sum total of the havoc wrought by a thunderburst that descended on Louisville, Ky., and vicinity last night. All the dead are residents of Louisville. Although reports are slow owing to the remoteness of telegraph and the prostration of telephone and telegraph wires, it is believed no further fatalities will be reported from the surrounding counties. Mrs. L. C. Nell, wife of Senator Nell and four children—Mrs. Lumhill and one child, named Wilmore, her daughter and a daughter, Paul Wilson, 18 years old; Mrs. Hartfield Moss and her six children, Mrs. J. W. Keltner and two sons, and Miss Mary Moss. All bodies have been recovered. One was due to the erratic course of Big Creek, ordinarily a stream, but which was already swollen by recent rains. When the creek was precipitated three feet of rain fell in an hour in Louisville and vicinity. The creek overflowed its bed and took a new course with the impetuosity of a tidal wave.

Inhabitants of Thadyville had time and nearly all were awoke before the foaming waters struck the village away six large houses, a mill and a number of small houses. Nearly all the victims were saved, but four were crushed to death in the collapse of their dwelling when the torrent struck.

Senator Nell, who is a physician, escaped from the fate that struck the rest of his family, but found that he was several miles from the hills with a patient when the storm broke.

Thadyville is a village of 175 inhabitants, six miles from Columbia, fifteen miles to the nearest station.

Evansville, Ill., June 8.—A tornado over New Minden, seven miles North of here at 9 a. m., killed 12 persons and injuring several others. A number of houses were demolished. Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. and two children, a child of 10 years, were killed.

Injured—Mrs. Carl Stuemeyer, Herman Weise, arm and shoulder and internally injured, a year-old child of Henry Heseman also serious injuries. A score of others were bruised by debris.

The storm struck the northern portion of the town and most of the houses destroyed were country houses built in the German Lutheran church. The steeple was blown down and the roof being taken off. On the north side of the church the parochial school was demolished. These buildings were probably the only ones in the village proper that were damaged.

From this point the tornado continued and leveled about seven more houses. The Weise house, in which five persons were killed, was about the last house struck. It was completely demolished. The occupiers were carried with the debris of a house into the adjacent field. Every member of the family was killed. Physicians from Hoyleston were hurried to the scene. A report has reached here that a farmer driving from Hoyleston to New Minden, with a wagon, has disappeared. It is believed that he was caught in the path of the storm and carried to his death. Much live stock was killed. At Covington considerable property damage was done but nobody was hurt.

Eleven years ago Minden was struck by a tornado and four or five persons killed and score or more injured.

York, Ill., June 8.—Three persons are dead and eight fatally injured as the result of a tornado which practically wiped out this town last night. The loss of property is estimated at $50,000 and the damage to timber and fruit crops will be more than $100,000.

Without warning the storm broke while most of the people were at supper. Entire families were buried in the ruins. The storm lasted less than four minutes. All communications were cut off until early today.

Died at an Advanced Age.

Mrs. Matilda Jane Fritts, the venerable widow of R. D. Fritts, died in this city at the home of Hughey Sisco on May 26, 1907 of the infirmities of old age coupled with cancer which of late had sapped what little vitality she had left.

Her husband preceded her to the grave in 1866 nearly a half century ago. She was in her seventy-ninth year and was a member of the old Mount Pleasant Methodist church, never having joined any other congregation, altho that church, which was situated on the Crittenden Springs tract now owned by R. W. Wilson, has gone to decay many years ago. That is now remaining.

Her remains were laid to rest at the new cemetery on Sunday, June 27, Rev. Elgin conducting the services.

Her surviving children are Mrs. John Ann Clark, of this city, John Fritts, of Indiana, H. M. Fritts, of Arkansas, Sam Fritts, of Missouri.

Alice Wilson, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Roberts, died Sunday night at 11 o'clock of meningitis. She had been quite ill for several days, but rallied Saturday and her parents had hopes of her recovery. Sunday afternoon she took a relapse and gradually sank until death relieved her.

The funeral was held at the residence Monday afternoon and the interment at the new cemetery, Rev. Andres officiating.

Some Fine Strawberries.

Mr. Jas. A. Pickens, of the Tribune section, is a grower of fine berries, and brought to the office last week a box of as nice ones as it has been our pleasure to see this season, and it proves that a little special care of that luscious fruit will increase its size and flavor.

Ladies Aid Handsomely Entertained.

Last Thursday June the 6th, the Ladies Aid Society, of the Baptist church, met on the Wilson hill with Mrs. John M. Asbridge. The trip was taken in buggies and carriages, and quite a number went, the omnibus drawn by four horses. The trip was quite enjoyable and as the weather was perfect, nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the evening.

The view from the Asbridge home, is one of the finest in the country, overlooking the beautiful valley below, in which nestles the city of Marion. The trains of the L. C. R. R. pass in full view, for over a mile—yet far enough away not to be disagreeable on account of noise or smoke.

The hostes served delicious refreshments of ice cream and strawberries with cake of several varieties.

Among those who attended were: Madames J. H. Butler, W. B. Walker, W. B. and T. J. Yandell, W. A. Blackburn, J. F. Dodge, Levi Cook, T. C. Carter, Susan Glenn, J. O. Dixon, G. M. Crider, U. G. Hughes, A. J. Duval; Misses Katie Yandell, Elizabeth Cook and Myra Dixon.

Eaton-Woolf.

Miss Millie Eaton, of this city, and Mr. Elmer Woolf, of Houston, Tex., were married Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. T. C. Carter at the home of the bride. Only the family and a few intimate friends were present.

Miss Eaton is the second daughter of Rev. E. M. Eaton, formerly of Salem, now of this city. For two years she has spent much time with her sister, Mrs. Eugene Love, in this city, and has won quite a number of friends by her quiet lady-like manner.

Mr. Woolf is a son of Mr. J. T. Woolf, of Tolu, and has been in Texas for several years, where he has been very successful in business.

Mr. and Mrs. Woolf left on the noon train Monday for Texas where they will make their home. Their many friends and the RECORD-PRESS extends congratulations and best wishes.

Mrs. Jennie Morse Dead.

Mrs. Jennie Morse, wife of the late David C. Morse, died at her home in West Marion, Tuesday evening, June 11, at six-thirty. She had been confined to her bed for about six weeks, but was a patient sufferer.

She was born Sept. 19, 1850 and was married Dec. 31, 1884. She was Miss Givens, sister of J. W. Givens, of this city, before her marriage.

Mrs. Morse was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Liberty in Caldwell county and was a noble Christian woman loved by all who knew her.

She is survived by two daughters, Misses Eliza and Fannie Morse, and two step-daughters, Mrs. Jennie Strong, of Princeton, and Miss Lizzie Morse, of this city.

The remains were taken to Liberty church near Farmersville, where the funeral and burial took place, conducted by Rev. Weodruff.

"Aunt" Rose Hughes Dead.

"Aunt" Rose Hughes, colored, died at her home on South Main street Thursday, June 6, at 9:30 o'clock.

She was the mother of Dr. Cobb and formerly belonged to the Cobb family of Eddyville and afterward to W. P. Maxwell.

After winning the first game with Kelsey, the Marion Juniors lost the second contest mainly thru the inability to hit Rice, coupled with errors by the out field. For five innings it was a pitchers battle, both pitchers doing excellent work. Marion only score came in the fifth inning after Rochester singled, stole second and third, he came home in a bunt by Henry. The score.

To and From the Far West.

Tolu, Ky., June 3, 1907.

EDITOR RECORD PRESS—I, in company with my cousin, J. A. Wheeler, of Crayeville, left Marion on the midnight train May 17 for a trip to the Far West. Going over the Union Pacific railroad we went via Evansville to Chicago on the I. C. Passing over the beautiful prairie state of Illinois we saw fields of corn and wheat and numberless orchards. Entering the White City by the lake we passed through miles of houses towering skyward ere we reached Union Depot by Lake Michigan. Here we had a stay of six hours, and I beheld in Lake Michigan my first large body of water dotted here and there by countless crafts. In a short stay of six hours we saw sights and wonders only a large city will furnish. The most serious thing, however, and which served us as a reminder, was a robbery. A brother and sister having inherited a sum of $1500 were waiting in the depot for a train in order to return to their home when the robbery occurred.

Land in the great city must be scarce as while waiting we saw workmen laying concrete extending out into Lake Michigan forcing the foundation of a great city park.

Leaving Chicago at 4 p.m. we began our Western journey on the Union Pacific. Bearing Northward we left the state of Illinois and entered the great state of Wisconsin. This state is very similar to Illinois, it being a prairie. We touched at Madison, the capital, then at La Crosse. Entering at St. Paul we took a Southwestern course, crossing Northwestern Iowa we entered the state of Nebraska at the city of Omaha. Here was our first change of ears out from Chicago. During a stay of ten hours we had an opportunity to see some of the sights of this city. The city is very peculiar being somewhat of a two story city. On some of the main streets the regular trains are on the ground while the street cars and side walks are above them, forming an elevated road. We also saw the great John Deer Plow Company manufactory and the Rock Island Plow Company, whose utensils I handle in my shop. I also discovered in this city no recognition of the Sabbath. Men working on the street, business men at their business and women at their washing and that too on Sunday.

At 4 p.m. Sunday we left this city and meandered Westward with the Platte river throughout the state, our next stop being at the capital of Wyoming, Cheyenne. Here a stop of four hours, but the time was spent in sight seeing. We took a run out to the state and the city park. At the state house we saw an imposing monument representing the soldiers in the Spanish-American taking the oath. Cheyenne is a prairie city, but in the city park was a forest of towering and well-kept cottonwood trees. The gate to this park bearing the words "Welcome in." We saw a sight we never before beheld, seals. There were two being eaged and transferred from one ear to another.

Utah is the state of the Mormon, but we never stayed long enough to have an offer of another wife—one being sufficient.

Continuing our journey we saw our first mountains when the Laramie range loomed in sight. Crossing these mountains and penetrating prairie and threading deserts wastes we left the state of Wyoming from its Southwest corner and entered the state of Utah, making our first stop at Ogden. We stopped here but a few minutes. But Utah is a beautiful state, being a state of towering snow capped mountains and undulating valleys. More beautiful orchards I never saw. We gradually came upon Great Salt Lake leaving the city to the Southward. We cut the lake in two as the railroad now has a dirt road through this greatest of Western lakes. This lake is said to be from three to eight feet deep and thirty-six miles across. In crossing this sheet of water we saw natural salt formation along the shore and in the center of the lake is an artificial island called Mid Lake Station on which a family reside. Leaving Great Salt Lake we entered the Great American desert. As far as the eye could see were great stretches of sandy deserts with a few basins of alkali here and there where now and then could be seen bunches of sage brush and other desert plants. This continued until we came to the mountains of Nevada. Along here we saw our first fencing against the snow against which was an embankment of snow. This fence prevents the snow from drifting onto the railroad and stopping the train. Soon we began to strike the mining districts. One mine in Nevada we passed was said to have forty miles of tunnel, one at a cost of $14,000,000 and a miner told me that $19,000,000 were taken from this mine and that they were still obtaining the finest ores, gold, silver and copper.

The next city we came to was Winnemucca, our business destination, and where we stopped a day and night.

Do not Neglect The Children.

A Wife's Needs.

She needs a good temper, a cheerful disposition and a knowledge of how her husband should be treated. She needs a capability of looking on the right side of life and refusing to be worried by small things. She needs a secure grasp of such subjects as are of interest to men, and should not be above studying even politics in order to understand, should her husband speak of them.

She needs a sympathetic nature in order that should sorrow fall upon them, she may be able to give comfort to her husband.

She needs to understand something of sick-nursing. A wife with no notion of what to do in the case of illness is but a useless thing. She needs considerable tact and patience—the one to enable her to know when to remain silent and vice versa, and the other to put up with him when his temper is ruffled. — Exchange.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Geo. A. Sherman, Lisbon Red Mills, Lawrence Co., N. Y., writes: "I had kidney disease for many years and had been treated by physicians for twelve years; had taken a well known kidney medicine and other remedies that were recommended but got no relief until I began using Foley's Kidney Cure. The first half bottle relieved me and four bottles have cured me of this terrible disease. Before I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure I had to make water about every fifteen minutes, day and night, and passed a brick-dust substance, and sometimes a slimy substance. I believe I would have died if I had not taken Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by J. H. Orme."

Tribute of Respect.

Bells Mines church met in session May 20, 1907 and voted the following tribute of respect to the memory of Bro. Sam J. Barnes, a member and elder of this congregation.

WHEREAS, God in his providence has removed, by death, our dearly beloved brother, S. J. Barnes, who was an honored member and officer of our church and Sunday School; a man whose life and character was the embodiment of that which was pure and good and worthy of imitation and a man honest in his convictions.

Bro. Barnes was born in this county and would have been forty-two years old if he had lived until June 10, 1907.

He gave his heart to God when quite young and affiliated with the General Baptist church, afterwards he joined the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Bells Mines, Aug. 24, 1900. He was ordained elder of this congregation April 20, 1902.

WHEREAS, our dearly beloved brother answered the summons of our Heavenly Father, we come up higher, on May 13th, be it

RESOLVED (a) That while it grieves our hearts to part with one, who in all the relations of life, professed his duty as by him understood, we bow in humble submission to the will of God, who does all things well, whose ways are hidden in the mysteries of his own work. "Dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return." (b) That in the death of Bro. Barnes the church has sustained a great and material loss, both as elder and member, the community a good citizen, the bereaved family a devoted husband and father. (c) That we hereby express our loving sympathies to all the bereaved ones and commend them to the tender care and guidance of the good Shepherd who loves and cares for his sheep. (d) That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Cumberland Banner and Record-Press for publication, a copy be given to the bereaved wife and a copy be spread on the records of this church.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him. "Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles," by J. H. Orme, druggist. 50¢ and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

For Chickens.

A mess of bran is always beneficial to fowls. Bran contains more phosphates and mineral matter than ground grain, and also assists in regulating the bowels. This is true especially when a quantity of lusiced meal is given with it, but in the warm season a mess three times a week is sufficient. It may be fed by scalding it and feeding it in a trough or by sprinkling it dry on a clean board or over cooked potatoes and turnips. No other grain should be given if bran is allowed during the summer season, especially if the fowls have a large range. In fact, no grain is necessary at all during a warm season, but should such food be given, let it be dry bran.

An excellent green food for young chicks can easily be provided through the expenditure of a few cents for oats. A half bushel of oats should be placed in a shallow box so that the entire mass is two to four inches deep. This should be sprinkled with water daily until the seeds have become saturated when they will sprout and continue to send up tender green shoots. Very young stock may be fed the shoots only, while older chicks can be given seed and all. — Exchange.

There is no ease of indigestion, no matter how obstinate, that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. Kodol contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. Conforms to the Pure Food Drugs Law. Sold by J. H. Orme.

Obituary.

The subject of this sketch, Mrs. Eliza Brown, was born in Livingston county, now Crittenden, the 5th day of June 1826 and died May 25, 1907. She was 80 years, 11 months and 17 days old. Her maiden name was O'Neal. She was married to J. C. Brown July 27, 1848. She professed faith in Christ about 28 years ago and some time thereafter, united with the Camp Creek Missionary Baptist church, but at the time of her death was a member of Baker Creek church.

Aunt Liza, as she was familiarly called, was a good woman. She was very industrious and a great helpmeet to her husband. She was a devoted Christian. The writer well remembers when he was a young preacher, and her pastor, that Aunt Liza would sometimes get happy while he was preaching and shout the praises of God. She told her friends and loved ones not to weep for her for she was going home to meet her Savior, who had taken care of her all her life and to meet her loved ones who had gone on before.

She leaves her aged husband, one son A. L. (Dock) Brown, a daughter-in-law, five grand children and a host of friends and relatives.

May God's richest blessings be upon the dear old husband, may his pathway be like that of the just, may it shine more and more until the perfect day.

The funeral was preached by the writer to a large and sorrowing congregation text Eph. 3:15, after which we laid her to rest in the Repton cemetery to await the Resurrection. Servant of God, well done, rest from thy loved employ the battles fought, the victory won, enter thou thy Master's joy.

KENTUCKY AS COAL STATE

Produced Nearly Ten Million Tons Of Black Diamond During the Year 1906.

Washington June 6.—Although Kentucky is noted chiefly in the popular mind for beautiful women, fast horses and good whisky Another her products is fast assuming the importance to which it is entitled in the industrial world.

Reference is made to coal. Last year the Blue Grass State produced nearly ten million tons of black coal, the exact figure being 9,755,000.

The value of this product was $11,784,823. This is considerable less than the coal was anthracite like that Pennsylvania prides herself on. Kentucky coal is bituminous, or the soft variety, which is much cheaper.

The production of coal in Kentucky last year showed a large increase over the amount mined the year before.

Kentucky's neighbor West Virginia produced more coal last year than Illinois, thus taking second place among the coal producing States. Pennsylvania was first and Illinois and Kentucky's rank was ninth.

DOES THIS STRIKE YOU.

When I see a youth with his pants turned up and his beautiful socks in view, and over one eye perched a little round, with a ribbon of red and blue, and the fourteen rings and seven pins that he got at the big High School, why it strikes a chord, and I say "Oh Lord, was I that big a fool?" When I see a youth with his gloves turned down add a cigarette stuck in his face, and a loud check coat and a horse cloth vest and half an inch wide shoe lace, and a bunch of hair that hides his ears, and a tongue of senseless drivel, then paw the grass as I saw "Oh Lord, was I ever that big a fool?" —Billy Bowlegs.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative and my Book on either dyspepsia.

The Heart or the Kidneys Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause.

Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs.

Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "Inside nerves."

Also for bloating, bloatiness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

Write me to-day for samples and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Haynes & Taylor.

Novel Burglar Alarm.

Paducah Ky., June 6.—Awakened by a storm of missiles on his front porch, H. C. Hollins, of twenty-first street and Broadway, went out to investigate the cause of the disturbance about 2 o'clock yesterday morning and was struck by an old shoe thrown from an upstairs window of the next house. Around his feet were odds and ends of footwear. Glancing toward the window, he saw two women frantically hurling old shoes at his porch. When he had attracted attention to his presence, the women, Misses Emma and Jane Morgan, told him there was a burglar in the house and they were trying to arouse the neighborhood. The house had been ransacked, but nothing was missing.

STATE FAIR NOTES.

The Kentucky State Board of Agriculture, Forestry and Immigration, under whose auspices the State fair will be held at Louisville, Sept. 16-21, has completed the classification of premiums for the next State Fair, and the issue is soon to go to press for distribution among over 20,000 prospective exhibitors. Any one interested in exhibiting live stock of any character, poultry, woman's work, products of the field, orchard or dairy, or the handwork of children, will confer a favor upon the Board of Agriculture by forwarding his or her name to the Secretary, R. E. Hughes, Louisville.

Natiello's Band, a premier musical organization with fifty all-star artists will furnish music for the Kentucky State Fair, to be held at Louisville, Sept. 16-21. The State Board of Agriculture is negotiating with the famous Kuabenshue, to bring to Louisville his new passenger carrying airship, together with his captive balloon, and the balloons with which two members of his aeronautic company make rages, as some of the big attractions of the State Fair. Knabenshue has a reputation that is worldwide. He was the first American to make a successful flight in an airship, and has been perfecting the machine that penetrates the skies ever since his first flight at the St. Louis Exposition in 1904, until now he has a vehicle soaring in the air, which carries additional passengers.

Wild Hog Attacks An Infant.

Rockport, Ky., June 8.—Attacked by a wild hog, which had come out of the woods in search of food, a two-year-old child of James Morgan, though badly mangled, was saved by a St. Bernard dog which had been left to guard it.

The child had wandered away from its home and the hog attacked it with the evident intent intention of eating it. The dog attacked the beast, and, and although badly mangled by the hog's tusks, succeeded in driving it off.

"Compared with any other law, I hold in higher dignity and most awful significance the law of the descent of inheritance; of prenatal influence; of the determining of destiny before a human being has ever known an independent heartbeat or an intelligent volition. I believe that all reforms have their root here, and that a wiser age, not far distant, either, will stand aghast as it reads of the present dance of delusion and death in respect to the right of every child to be well-born. This is the greatest reform the world will ever see." —Frances E. Willard.

Telegraphy.

The fact that telegraph operators are being taught and sent out to railroad positions almost every week, by the Bowling Green Business University, is sufficient evidence of the thoroughness of the training given by that institution. This is now one of the largest commercial schools in America and the enrollment is increasing every year. This University has the largest Telegraphy school in the South, and third largest in the world.

The soul and brain are far more easily molded in childhood than in adult life. Parents who know how to do this may shape the child's plastic soul into a noble, beautiful character. If they carelessly allow it to form evil habits, the result is a malformed soul and brain that may rule to ruin in after years. Mental suggestion, wisely employed, will insure their success in this all-important work.

The Government Short.

There is a dearth of stenographers throughout the country, even the United States Government is unable to procure all it needs. The Business University at Bowling Green, Ky., turns out more stenographers than any other institution in the South and yet it gets many times more calls for them than it can supply. Stenography is an uncrowded vocation.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling needs.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and failing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, pulsating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help.

If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

THURSDAY, JUNE 13, 1907.

We are authorized to announce

a candidate for Assessor, to fill out the unexpired term of J. Anthony Davidson, subject to the action of the Republican party. He endorses the local option law.

It pays to be a vegetarian these days.

June's mighty gluu about something or other.

But in spite of the cold spring, there is a fine crop of beautiful June brides.

One thing about Senator Foraker, he is brave enough to speak right out in meeting.

Each of those Long Island prisoners confesses that the other murdered the girl.

There is a fortune in sight just now for the man with a scheme for producing artificial sunshine.

The Pittsburgh Board of trade has resolved to double the population of that city during the next ten years. Of course, we are all expected to watch Pittsburgh's "sunrise."

It has been asserted there are 40 fortunes or more than $50,000,000 each in the Pittsburgh district, based on coal and iron development. Whether this be correct or not, there are certainly a great many fortunes running from $5,000,000 and $10,000,000 up to $100,000,000 each, and then there is Mr. Carnegie's of $300,000,000, or $400,000,000.

The Philadelphia Inquirer says the man who steals a watch has an advantage over the man who steals a railroad. But we refuse to believe that he has a good time.

A Boston preacher informed his congregation, that in eight years, the reign of the devil will come to an end. But what we like to know is when the rainy season is coming to an end.

One thing can be truthfully said of the teachers in our schools at the present time, and those employed for the ensuing year, that their daily walk and conversation, and their moral lives are such as to form a good example for their pupils. Our pupils can safely follow the example of the teacher. "When the roll is called up yonder" the teachers of our school can answer "present." Good morals and good manners are taught in our schools and the worthy example set by our present corps of teachers has a great influence in moulding the character of the youth of our city.

It is simply too much to think about, much less to tell," exclaimed the veteran sewing machine man.

"I rubbernecked until I got a stiff neck. When I once got her set back for a twenty five story building it was very difficult to get it back into a normal condition."

Dick leaned back and assumed a comfortable position.

"Yes siree," he continued, "it was a sight to see. Why man alive you ought to see one of those northern cities. It is all hustle and bustle and a slow guy like me stood a good chance to get run over. I'll tell you what's the honest truth, I spent half my time getting out of the way and trying to keep from getting run over the other half.

Street cars, rubber tired vehicles of all kinds as well as automobiles kept me busy guessing which way to jump. And speaking of automobiles, say boss! it was a sight to see me up beside old man White, of the White Sewing Machine Company, riding in his $4000 White automobile "doing" Cleveland. He drove us all over the city and do you know we were the first men he ever personally conducted over Cleveland."

Dick here recrossed his legs and retilted his chair against the wall.

"You bet your life I am some punkins when I get out of Marion. They call me Mr. Wilborn with the accent on the mister. The White Sewing Machine Company know a good thing when they see it. I have always stuck to them and they know it. They kept us moving seeing the sights while we were there and best of all they paid the bills.

Niagara Falls? Well I should say it was a sight to see. Say boss!

Crooked Creek is not in it. Niagara Falls is the grandest sight I ever saw.

I am very proud of the trip, but we saw so much I was glad when we finally headed for home.

I am on my way back now to take charge of the crew. No, I don't think I will ever come back to Marion to live."

Hicks should be suppressed. We say this without fear of contradiction.

On the twentieth day of May a high official of the United Spar Industries of Crittenden county made the assertion that "there never has been a month of May since Marion has had a place on the map in which the roads have been so bad for twenty consecutive days."

The above was said with a close snap of the jaws and a look that betrayed a grudge against the weather man at Washington or Hicks in St. Louis.

"Why, do you know," I continued that high spar authority, "that I have a string of telegrams this high," and he measured up at least two feet of his left coat sleeve, "all demanding an immediate answer as to why my promises have not been fulfilled.

My reputation for truth and veracity is getting in a bad way." And the man of spar sighed.

And now comes Hicks with the following for June:

June 9 to 13: Coldest summer weather for many years in June, but

Electricity on The Farm.

E. B. Miner, of Oriskany Falls, N. Y., has solved the problem of progressive farming. He has made a success of kid-glove farming and can now do the hardest work on the premises without a backache. The heavy work on the Miner farm, and most of the lighter work too, is done by electricity while the farmer and his good family stand idly by and watch the wheels go round.

There is a little creek running through Mr. Miner's farm, and he has merely put the stream to work and is doing the playing himself. This stream he harnessed to run a small dynamo, which in turn gives him electric light, heat and power for his home and farm buildings. A small dam of the flow type was built of concrete. The fall is about six feet. A small power house was equipped with a water wheel and a 250 volt generator. The electricity is carried to the house and barn by cables.

At the spacious farm house electricity lights all the rooms, heats a number of apartments; runs the sewing machine and will also be used to cook the food. The cream is separated by electricity and the heavy barrel churn is run by the same power. A small motor drives the buzz saws, the grindstone, the feed cutters, the faning mill and pumps the water.

The cost of the plant was trifling considering what it does. It runs night and day and requires practically no attention further than oiling twice a week.

There are doubtless hundreds of other places throughout the country where small water power could be utilized and a similar plant installed.

OLDEST PAPER IN OHIO

The Seioto Gazette is the oldest paper of continuous publication under the same name, west of the Allegheny Mountains. It was founded in 1796 by Nathaniel Willis, grandfather of N. P. Willis, the poet. The older Wilson was born in Boston, tradition has it, learned the printer's trade under Benjamin Franklin, and was member of the famous Boston Tea Party.

As nearly as can be ascertained the Gazette was interrupted for a time but on April 25, 1800, Willis began a new series with Vol. I., No. 1, and the old paper has gone on continuously since that date.

In addition to being the oldest existing paper west of the mountains the Gazette may fairly lay claim by collateral descent at least being the first paper ever published in the Northwest Territory. In 1793, in Cincinnati, Wm. Maxwell started the Sentinel of the Northwest Territory, the first newspaper in the Territory. In 1796 he sold it to Edmund Freeman's Journal, and in 1800 removed to Chillicothe where he died in the following year. Willis bought the plant and good will of the paper and incorporated the Journal with the Gazette.

STATE COLLEGE NOTES

Pres. Jas. K. Patterson and the Board of Trustees had returned from an extended visit to various colleges and universities in the North and West.

Ind. A. S Mackenzie has been engaged to conduct several institutes in Pennsylvania for the coming summer.

The students body and the faculty have manifested unusual interest in literary and athletic features this year. The five literary societies have been very enthusiastic in their work during the whole year.

Kentucky alone, Delaware expected the only state in the Union that has no state university. Why should this be the case, when a prouder nor more progressive people in any other vital question never lived than the people of Kentucky? Why do we stand idle by and see our sister states of far less wealth in natural resources outstrip us in educational advantages.

Heartburn

You know what it is—few people are exempt from frequent "spells" of this distressing complaint.

The appetite becomes impaired, while a severe gnawing or burning sensation experienced in the upper part of the abdomen.

Heartburn is one of the many ways in which the digestive organism expresses disapproval of ill-treatment—warns you to be careful.

Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin

gives instant relief in all cases of heartburn and by toning and strengthening the stomach and bowels, prevents a return of the trouble.

SALEM

The State's Sunday School Sup't, lectured at our church last Monday night. After discussing the advantages and general progress of the Sunday School work, he gave a general moral lecture, illustrating it with a series of stereopticon views.

We hope for an improvement in our Sunday School work at this place, and if the parents would take more interest, the children would naturally take a delight in the work.

The people of Salem are jubilant over the prospects of the railroad to this place. Every peculiar noise heard on the streets, is supposed to be made by a derailed car, or a cow catcher chasing a hog.

Most of the farmers of this section are done planting corn, and some tobacco has been set. On account of the scarcity of plants the tobacco crop will be light in this county this year.

Will Grassham has returned to Paducah where expects to spend the summer.

J. H. Walker and went to Fredericksburg Tuesday on business.

Jim McCabe has returned from his vacation tour to Paducah.

Miss Sallie Grassham has returned from Paducah.

Mr. C. R. Babb is on the sick list.

C. I. Morgan, formerly miller at this place, has moved with his family to Fredericksburg. We have our old miller John Travis back again.

Miss Floyd Slapden, formerly a student of Salem school is reported to have the measles.

Prof. Chas. Husi will teach a ten days review, on all the common school branches, preparatory for the examination in June.

K. O. Grassham is at home for a few days.

Herman Lowery of Kuttawa is visiting his parents at this place.

Call Uncle Ben to move your stamps.

Mrs. Laura Hayden and son Dr. J. L. Hayden left Tuesday for a month visit to Mrs. Hyden's mother Mrs. Sherrel at Grand Rapids.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds is Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It contains no opium and does not constipate. Children like it. Sold by J. H. Drane.

In addition to being the oldest existing paper west of the mountains the Gazette may fairly lay claim by collateral descent at least being the first paper ever published in the Northwest Territory. In 1796 he sold it to Edmund Freeman's Journal, and in 1800 removed to Chillicothe where he died in the following year. HOPKINS COUNTY NEWS.

A surveying party of the United States Geodetic Department passed thru Madisonville Tuesday taking measurements of the surface of our country to be used in making topographical charts. The party will remain in this country for several days in this immediate section of the state for about a month and a half. The party is in charge of C. B. Kendall.

Latter information confirms the statement published in the Hustler that a large coal mining plant will be opened in the vicinity of White Plains in the near future. The name of the company will be the Midland Coal Co. and the principal capital comes from the East. The expect to sink a shaft about one-half mile from White Plains near Mt. Carmel, but will extend their subtrack about three miles further, in order to work some drift mines.

The company will take up about 25,000 acres of coal rights on which it has options, and it is said that work will begin in the near future.

F. F. Brown happened to a peculiar experience the other day. He hauled some pea hay home and intended to cover it and leave it in the wagon until the next morning. In attempting to put some old doors on the wagon he slipped and struck his shoulder against the wagon wheel dislocating his right shoulder. He fell to the ground with the door on him and, while suffering excruciating pain, attempted for about fifteen minutes to extricate himself. He finally made a tremendous effort and in doing so jerked his shoulder back into place. While it is very sore he is able to be about and use it.

Chas. Friend, of this city, informed the Hustler that his hens laid 2867 during the month of May which he sold for $37.34. He has about 150 hens. During the month he spent $8.33 for feed.—Madisonville Hustler Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says, Doctors got badly mixed up over me, one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and fifth, stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me, so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed to cure blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by J. H. Orme, druggist, 50c.

The people of Owensboro are aroused over the question of doing away with the dust nuisance this summer. Here is the way the Inquirer sizes up the man who won't "sprinkle in front of his residence." State University.

Almost every state in Union endows its university and keeps it amply equipped for performing the duties and obligations imposed upon it. But where do we stand in the ranks of education?

Only two other states have a greater percentage of illiteracy. Out of the twenty-five thousand common school trustees in the state five thousand of them are unable to read and write. It is time that people should awake from their state lethargy in which they have been slumbering so long and fit their mind and heart upon better and higher education of a more technical character. Many say that our great percentage of illiteracy is due to a great degree to our large colored population, but only a glance at the national census report will prove to clearly that were not for the present colored population the percentage would be even greater than now.

These facts should not discourage us, but only prove a stronger incentive to a nobler and grander effort for a higher education as well as a public education, since the education of the masses is directly proportional to the higher education. In Kentucky the State College is and of right the head of the educational system in the State, and the success of progress of the education of the public is measured to a large degree by the success of the head of higher education.

While the state is discredited by her educational inferiority in that she has no State University, not a well developed school system and in many other respects it is yet encouraging to know that there is an earnest and growing demand for an institution of higher title and grander proportions and wider in usefulness than the State College.

The State has nothing to regret in the money which has been bestowed upon this, the greatest institution of its kind by far there is in the state but on the other hand has much for which it may justly feel proud.

During its forty years of existence and with its means limited to less than that of almost any other institution of its character in the Union, it has done which compares very favorably with that of other larger and much greater endowed Colleges and universities.

In comparing it graduates with those of other institutions it has less than one per cent of failures—much less than that of any other college of its kind in the United States. Every member of the class of 1906 has a good position.

The State College is the only school in the State which does University work. As has many shown in The Journal from time to time the courses here are broader, more liberal, and of a more technical character than any in the state.

There are eight scientific courses each leading up to a degree, but are distinguished by the subject which has major importance in the curriculum, namely: Chemistry, Botany, Zoology, Geology, Anatomy and Physiology, Entomology, Agriculture, and Physics. There are three different classical courses: One major Greek and Latin; one in English and Modern Languages; and one in Pedagogy, which entitles the holder to teach in any school in the state for life without further examination.

There are also also the various engineering courses, such as Mining Engineering, Civil Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, and Electrical Engineering, all of which are of four years' duration and lead to a degree.

Stars And Bars Barred At Capitol.

Washington, June 6.—One hundred Confederate veterans from Tennessee carrying the stars and bars were yesterday denied admission to the United States capitol until they had lowered their flag and disarmed. The old soldiers came to Washington from the Richmond reunion and after visiting the White House marched down Pennsylvania avenue. The Capitol police informed them they would be allowed admission to the Capitol only as private citizens and not as an organized body. Congressman John Wesley Gaines, of Tennessee, who accompanied the veterans, entered a protest.

Every Man His Own Doctor.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's Remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy for bowel complaints. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumatic pain.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles.

Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin.

NEW SALEM.

This seems to be an off year with the farmers.

All the loose earth on our public highways was cleaned out by the late storm leaving our roads in a bad fix.

The following are down with the measles and under the care of a doctor: Henry Browster, three at Carter McDowell's, two at Frank James', one at Bunk Baker's, three at Clem Moran's, two at John Conyer's, one at Robert Carter's, one at Rufe Parker's and Mrs. Allen Kirk.

Married in Marion, June 3, Mr. J. W. Holouan, of Mexico, this county, to Miss Sallie Mahan, of New Salem, Judge Blackburn officiating.

This part of Crittenden county was visited Friday night, June 7, by one of the worst rain, hail and wind storms in forty years, doing thousands of dollars damage to crops, gardens and timber. Some farmers had their entire crops ruined. The hail was very severe, ruining corn, tobacco and garden truck.

Mr. and Mrs. Bart Hodges visited in the upper part of the county Sunday.

Mrs. Monroe and family, of Milford, are visiting Mrs. Monroe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carter.

Some men go around with their heads bowed down saying we are all going to starve this year. As for us, we look on the sunny side and think of better days coming.
